CALL FOR PAPERS

(BASIS Points will be applied for)

The programme for this conference will be open to any topics or areas within basic or applied plant virology and will include all current areas of interest to Plant Virologists, and will consist of presentations by invited speakers as well as offered papers by conference delegates.

We welcome submissions from established researchers, post-docs and students. The meeting will include the student competitions as outlined below.

Student prizes will be awarded for the best platform (Bryan Harrison prize) and best poster (Raymond/Roger Hull prize) presentations.

Invited speakers to be announced

Descriptions of papers can be submitted by mailing or faxing the attached sheet to the AAB Office, or online via our web site at <http://www.aab.org.uk>. Click on CONFERENCES and then ABSTRACTS in the menu bar, then the title of Conference. Once you have registered as a user you can upload your details. Please indicate if your offer is for a poster or a platform presentation. Please ensure your POP UP BLOCKER is off, or the abstract may not load properly.

DEADLINE FOR CALL FOR PAPERS IS 31 JANUARY 2018
